ACTS OF MERCY –

1. Make a list of your “enemies.” Then, every day, say a prayer for them.
2. Make a point to smile, greet or make conversation with someone who is not in your everyday circle.
3. Give away something of yours (that you really like) to someone you know who would enjoy it.
4. Pray a Divine Mercy Chaplet as you are traveling to or from work.
5. When mercy for others is difficult, pray Cardinal Merry del Val’s Litany of Humility.
6. Make a gratitude journal for your spouse and jot down little things he or she does that you’re grateful for. Bite your tongue and go write in it (or at least read it) the next time you want to criticize in a moment of frustration.

7. Learn to make an Ignatian “Examen” every night. Remembering God’s mercy each night helps us to be merciful.
8. Respond to provocation with the respect you wish a person would show you.
9. Learn the Jesus Prayer and use it.
10. Take a few minutes during the week to stop at a church and sit before the Tabernacle, simply to be with Christ, the Merciful. If you cannot do that, meditate upon the crucifix.
11. Pray a novena for the good of someone you dislike.
12. Dig out your most attractive stationery and hand-write an actual letter to someone, as a means of demonstrating their importance to you.
13. Offer to read to someone who is feeling ill or is just feeling blue.
14. Ask the Holy Spirit to groan for you when you cannot bring yourself to pray for someone who has done you an injury.
15. Lead with a kind comment with friends as well as strangers.
16. When conversations devolve into “the dark joy” of gossip, help change the subject.
17. Can you play the piano, or any instrument? Can you recite poetry? Give free “concerts” to the forgotten people in nursing homes and assisted living centers.
18. Visit the graves of your ancestors, or visit a local cemetery and walk around praying a rosary for all the souls buried there.
